

Raxwell®

4 Mil | Natural Latex Gloves

These 4 mil natural latex gloves provide dependable hand protection for tasks requiring tactile sensitivity and cleanliness. Manufactured from high-quality natural rubber latex, they offer excellent elasticity, comfort, and fit without the use of powder—helping reduce residue transfer and contamination risks. The smooth, natural-colored finish supports a professional appearance across food, healthcare, and general-use environments.

Powder-Free Disposable Gloves Designed for Clean Handling & Precise Control.
